

Wednesday 7 July
8.30am	Registration opens
9.00am	Welcome to country - Agnes Shea, Ngunnawal elder
9.15am	Opening - Stephen Parker, Vice-Chancellor, University of Canberra
9.30am	Keynote - Professor John Durham Peters
10.30am	Morning tea
Concurrent Session 1
	A	B	C	D	E	F
Room	MR1	MDR2	MDR3	Secretariat	Private Dining Room	L2
	Journalism & News Media	Media & Citizenship	Public Relations	Entertainment	Information & Knowledge Sharing	Health Communication
Chair	Matthew Ricketson	Sue Turnbull	Peter Simmons	Alan McKee	Sally Burford	Kate Holland
11.00am	Kerry Green, Stephen Tanner & Jolyon Sykes, Reflecting society in journalism education (Non-refereed)	Tim Marjoribanks, David Nolan & Karen Farquharson, Media representations of Sudanese people in Australia: an initial analysis (Refereed)	Joy Chia, From the inside: executives' social capital investment perspectives and the public relations researchers' response (Refereed)	Jan Kershaw, 'Such was the status of women . . . That at first The Australian Women's Weekly was hardly taken seriously at all': the humble beginnings of a cultural icon (Refereed)	Stuart Ferguson, Social capital, lifelong learning, information literacy and the role of libraries (Refereed)	Debbie Rodan, Care of the self: remaking the obese 'self' in The Biggest Loser: Couples (Australia) (Refereed)
11.25am	Diana Bossio, Defining professionalism within higher education journalism studies (Refereed)	Terry Flew, Comparative communications research: Australian and New Zealand communications research in an international context (Non-refereed)	Elsbeth Tilley & Tyron Love, Learning from Kaupapa Maori: issues and techniques for engagement (Refereed)	Jennifer Juckel & Jennifer Robinson, It only works when I laugh: accessing humour in comedy (Non-refereed)	Heidi Julien, Twenty-first century citizenship: the role of Canada's public libraries (Non-refereed)	Katrina Clifford, The limits of responsibility: rethinking media ethics as a framework for sustainable risk communications in relation to fatal health crisis interventions (Non-refereed)
11.50am	Andrew Dodd, Media training: it's time journalists got even (Refereed)	Georgie McClean, Online Cosmopolitanism or Self-Affirming Narcissism? Online engagement with public broadcasting and cultural diversity (Non-refereed)	Jim Macnamara, Four gaps in public relations teaching and practice: the need for new approaches (Refereed)	Pia Majbritt Jensen, The international extent and elasticity of lifestyle television (Refereed)	C. Kay Weaver & Margaret Richardson, A longitudinal case study research analysis of government rhetoric and the distribution of power in a community broadband initiative (Non-refereed)	Michelle Imison, Andrea Fogarty & Simon Chapman, The Australian Health News Research Collaboration: findings and future directions (Non-refereed)
12.15pm	Lunch
	Postgraduate Mentoring Session - John Durham Peters

Concurrent Session 2
	A	B	C	D	E	F
Room	MR1	MDR2	MDR3	Secretariat	Private Dining Room	L2
Stream	Entertainment	Media & Citizenship	Creativity and Knowledge	Indigenous Media & Representation	Information & Knowledge Sharing	Organisational Communication
Chair	Alan McKee		Elizabeth Paton	Kerry McCallum	Stuart Ferguson	Owen Hargie
1.15pm	Michelle Phillipov, The pleasures of popular music: methodological considerations in the understanding of entertainment (Non-refereed)	Burcu Simsek, The perfect circle: the use of digital storytelling for the circulation of feminist concerns (Non-refereed)	Phillip McIntyre, Communication and the creation of media content: A PBE study of popular music songwriting (Refereed)	Lisa Waller, Singular influence: mapping the ascent of Daisy M. Bates in popular understanding and Indigenous policy (Refereed)	Sally Burford, Web information architecture: a participatory practice (Refereed)	John O'Sullivan & Colleen Mills, Making sense of stories: the interface between narrative, self, social context and sense (Refereed)
1.40pm	Carolyn Michelle, Understanding Avatar's global appeal: a study of cross-cultural receptions (Non-refereed)	Brendan Reilly, American influence on citizens through New Zealand commercial music radio (Refereed)	Louise Katz, Playfulness, ambivalence and creativity (Non-refereed)	Jani Wilson, E Whakarangururu ana te 'Maori' i roto i te 'Hunga Matakaitaki Maori': problematising the 'Maori' in the 'Maori audience' (Non-refereed)	Marilyn Mitchell, Affordances and limitations of the dashboard in the visual communication of managerial information (Non-refereed)	Melissa Sedmak & Phil Longhurst, Enterprise system implementation projects: the role of communication (Non-refereed)
2.05pm	Kathleen Williams, Re-reading the history of the trailer: the production and consumption of 'recut' trailers (Refereed)	Jessica Rodgers, Analysing queer student media using a combined queer theoretical and media studies approach (Non-refereed)	Michael Sergi, Selecting a directorial methodology for a creative practice film (Refereed)	Sue Abel, 'Balance' in the news and the indigenous voice(s) (Non-refereed)	Kerry Green, Denise Wood & Susan Luckman, Northern Futures Archive: eresearch communication strategies for bringing disparate stories together (Non-refereed)	Tony Self, Context-agnostic writing in modular documents (Refereed)
2.30pm	Afternoon tea

Concurrent Session 3
	A	B	C	D	E	F
Room	MR1	MDR2	MDR3	Secretariat	Private Dining Room	L2
Stream	Journalism and News Media	Media & Citizenship	Advertising/Marketing Communications	Political Communication	Intercultural Communication	Organisational Communication
Chair	Kerry Green	Terry Flew	Kay Weaver	Kerry McCallum	Nina Weerakoddy	Colleen Mills
2.45pm	Matthew Ricketson, Writing media releases disguised in narrative form: a comparison of the work of Bob Woodward and Mark Danner (Non-refereed)	Robyn Penman & Sue Turnbull, From listening . . . Into the dialogical space at the radical centre (Non-refereed)	David Pearson & Joanna Henryks, What are marketing communications telling consumers in Australia about the sustainability of local organic food purchases? (Refereed)	Libby Lester, Brett Hutchins & Simon Cottle, Online media and the 2010 Tasmanian election: changing political environments? (Non-refereed)	Aparna Hebbani & Jayson McNamara, Examining the impact of 'visible differences' on multiple marginalization of Somali and Sudanese former refugees in Australia (Refereed)	Owen Hargie, Mairead McCoy & Pauline Irving, The role of communication following terrorist attacks: a Pan-European study (Non-refereed)
3.10pm	Lucy Morieson, Reconsidering interactivity in online journalism: two Australian case studies (Refereed)	Tim Dwyer & Fiona Martin, Voice diversity and news content sharing: tracking the impact of online reuse (Non-refereed)	Mark Morrison, David Waller, Jenni Greig & Rod McCulloch, Effective communication to landholders: A survey of local environmental authorities (Non-refereed)	Geoffrey Craig, How Should A Prime Minister Speak? Habitus, Field, and the search for the real Kevin Rudd (Non-refereed)	Teone Reinthal, "we'll both belong to the place": developing cultural awareness through receptivity and recognition (Refereed)	Margaret Richardson, Mary Simpson & Ted Zorn, Encore careers in older New Zealanders: experiences of wellbeing and positive ageing (Non-refereed)
3.35pm	Christina Koutsoukos, A five-year plan: Beyond the crumbling fortresses and the never-ending story (Refereed)	Nina Funnell, Kath Albury & Estelle Noonan, Sexting and citizenship: the limits of (self) representation (Refereed)	Joanna Henryks & David Pearson, Marketing communications create confusion: perception versus reality for Australian organic food consumers (Refereed)	Myra Gurney, Speaking in tongues: risk aversion and the discursive practice of 'strategic-ambiguity' in Australian political debate (Non-refereed)		Mary Simpson, Margaret Richardson & Ted Zorn, Interactive ageism: communication at the elder-organisation interface (Non-refereed)
4.00pm	Panel: Is there a spin doctor in the house?
4.45pm	Kate Cowie - Welcome & Introduction to the Museum of Australian Democracy
5.00pm	Drinks - Members Bar

Thursday 8 July
9.00am	Introduction - Kate Cowie, Acting Director, Museum of Australian Democracy
9.15am	Keynote - Robyn Archer
10.15am	Morning tea & book launch - Sponsored by McGraw Hill Education Australia & New Zealand
Concurrent Session 4
	A	B	C	D	E	F
Room	MDR1	MDR2	MDR3	Secretariat	Private Dining Room	L2
Stream	Narrative & Literary Journalism	Health Communication	Global Media & Communication	Creativity & Communication	Digital and Social Media	Pedagogy
Chair		Simon Chapman		Phillip McIntyre	Scott Rickard	Christina Koutsoukos
10.45am	Matthew Ricketson, The practice of book-length journalism: reframing the debate (Refereed)	Kate Holland & R Warwick Blood, Not just another flu? The framing of swine flu in the Australian press (Refereed)	Peter Putnis, Communication revolution: American-Australian news links 1930-1950 (Non-refereed)	Elizabeth Paton, The potential effects of media use on adult creativity (Refereed)	Axel Bruns, In search of Australian blogs: determining the extent of the contemporary Australian blogosphere (Non-refereed)	Dugald Williamson, The rhetoric of invention: research skills for undergraduates and coursework postgraduates (Refereed)
11.10am	Marcus O'Donnell, Apocalyptic journalism: meandering through savage dreams (Non-refereed)	Michelle Imison, Andrea Fogarty & Simon Chapman, H1N1 on television: is it important and what should you do? (Non-refereed)	Carmela Baranowska, Cold Blood (Non-refereed)	Judith Sandner, Collaborative cultural production: generative processes of participation in textual creation (Refereed)	Sora Park, The hierarchy of online discussants in political message boards (Non-refereed)	Niranjala Weerakkody, Teaching and learning in a mandated wholly online unit which is theory and analysis-based: 2007 to 2009 (Non-refereed)
11.35am	Janet Fulton, Print journalism and the creative process: the social organisation of journalism and its influence on print journalists' creative practices (Refereed)	Andrew Dare & R Warwick Blood, Online representations of the novel H1N1 2009 pandemic (Non-refereed)	Eva Polonska-Kimunguyi, Media and democracy in Central and Eastern Europe: the promise of 1989 revisited (Refereed)	Rosemary Williamson, Buying the creative life: the rhetorical function of Australian quilters' magazines as advocates for choice (Refereed)	Michael Galvin & Christine Lim, 'Speaking truth to power', Singapore style: the case of STOMP (Non-refereed)	Jane Mills, The significance of visual communication for literacy learning and national cultural wellbeing (Non-refereed)
12.00pm		R Warwick Blood, Kate Holland, Simon Chapman & Jane Pirkis, Mediatized 'risk-events' and the H1N1 global pandemic in Australia: audience understandings, perceptions and behaviours (Non-refereed)	Ramaswami Harindranath, Global and local " performance: of terror on the internet" (Refereed)	Chloe Killen, Investigating creativity in the production of Australian children's literature: implications for future research (Refereed)
12.25pm	Lunch
1.25pm	ANZCA AGM

3.05pm

Afternoon tea

Concurrent Session 5

	A	B	C	D	E	F
Room	MDR1	MDR2	MDR3	Secretariat	Private Dining Room	L2
Stream	Creativity & Communication	Health Communication	Public Relations	Journalism, Media & Pedagogy	Mobile Communication	Interpersonal Communication
Chair	Judith Sandner	Warwick Blood	Elsbeth Tilley	Jolyon Sykes	Christina Spurgeon	Carolyn Hartcher
3.30pm	Sarah Coffee, Exploring creativity through freelance journalism: testing out the systems model (Refereed)	Andrea Fogarty & Simon Chapman, Framing and the marginalisation of evidence in media reportage of policy debate about alcopops, Australia 2008-09: implications for advocacy (Non-refereed)	Peter Simmons, Disliking public relations: democracy and ethical communication habits (Refereed)	Anna Daniel, Terry Flew & Christina Spurgeon, The promise of computational journalism (Refereed)	Scott Rickard, The mobile challenge to fix(ed) (Non-refereed)	Mary R Power, Managing and adapting to communicative change across the life span (Non-refereed)
3.55pm	Sarah Atfield, Where are the working-class stories and how is work-class creativity communicated? (Non-refereed)	Debbie Rodan, Lynsey Uridge & Lelia Green, Using nicknames, pseudonyms and avatars on HeartNET: a snapshot of an online health support community (Refereed)	Anne Lane, Modelling the process of dialogic communication in public relations: a role-based approach (Refereed)	Jennifer Robinson, Siree Treleaven-Hassard, Anika Schweda & Duane Varan, The 'Bloomberg' effect: processing cluttered TV news format (Non-refereed)	Clare Lloyd, Intimate mobile connections: a tool for intimacy (Refereed)	Kazuko Ikedo, Intercultural communication: Chinese way and Japanese way (Non-refereed)
4.20pm	Chang Shu-Fei, Field, quanxi and work practices: a study on Taiwanese TV producers working in Mainland China (Non-refereed)	Shujie (Phoebe) Guo, Cheryl Cockburn-Wooten, Prue Homes & Mary Simpson, Becoming a good consumer: intercultural communication experiences with maternity carers and health providers in New Zealand (Non-refereed)	Chris Devauld & Lelia Green, 'Don't throw anything away': Greenwashing in public relations (Refereed)	Harry Criticos, Centralisation in regional radio: networking and localism in the Super Radio Network (Refereed)	Gerard Goggin & Kate Crawford, Friendship and (mobile) media (Non-refereed)	Justina Cheang, Formation of personal email addresses: a Macau case study (Non-refereed)

4.45pm	Mark David Ryan & Greg Hearn, Generation Next: post-cinema Australian moviemaking, innovation and implications for cultural policy (Refereed)	Don Perlgut, Indigenous health communication: a case study of the 'Strong' series, 2005-2010 (Non-refereed)	Melanie James & Rhianna Fursdon, Sydney PR agencies: why are they blogging? An exploratory study of the blogging practices of Sydney public relations agencies (Refereed)	Christina Koutsoukos & Felicity Biggins, Putting the 'i' into Journalism Education: the why and the how of the re-working of the journalism curriculum at the University of Newcastle (Refereed)	Mary R Power, Managing peer conflict at school and throughout life (Non-refereed)
7.30pm	Conference Dinner - National Press Club, 16 National Circuit, Barton, ACT

Friday 9 July

9.00am Keynote - Professor John Keane (Session chaired by Terry Flew, Introduction - Michael Evans)

10.15am Morning tea - sponsored by the Public Communication Research Cluster, University of Canberra

Concurrent Session 6

	A	B	C	D	E	F
Room	MDR1	MDR2	MDR3	Secretariat	Private Dining Room	L2
Stream	Advertising & Marketing Comm	Creativity & Knowledge	Science & Environment Communication	Information & Knowledge Sharing	Disability & Communication*	Pedagogy
Chair	Joanna Henryks		Geoff Craig	Marilyn Mitchell	Cassie Loeser	Nina Weeradoddy
10.45am	C. Kay Weaver, Shoa Sean Yun & Fabrice Desmarais, A content analysis of gender representations in Chinese television advertising: the blending of traditional Confucian and modern western values (Non-refereed)	Emma Keltie, Fan fiction: remaking popular entertainment (Non-refereed)	Bethaney Turner, Food, citizenship and democracy: contested representations of GMOs (Refereed)	Lelia Green, Christine Teague & David Leith, Watching me watching you: the use of CCTV to support safer work places for public transport transit offices (Refereed)	Note changed paper times for this session *10.45 - Vicki Crowley, The rhizomatics of hearing: becoming deaf in the workplace and other spaces of hearing (Non-refereed)	Toija Cinque, Educating Generation Next (Refereed)
11.10am	Pingali Venugopal, Positioning a green brand (Non-refereed)	Michael Olsson, Making Sense of Shakespeare: the Embodied Knowledge Sharing of Theatre Professionals (Non-refereed)	Sophie Lieberman, John Gollan & Phoebe Hill, Citizen science: three perspectives (Non-refereed)	Frank Sligo, Elspeth Tilley, Niki Murray & Margie Comrie, Community of practice as barrier to knowledge and skills: the case of apprentices' learning (Refereed)	*11.05 - Gerard Goggin, Disability and media justice (Non-refereed)	Catherine Simpson, Exploring Tim Flannery: developing models for interdisciplinary curriculum on climate (Non-refereed)
11.35am	David Waller, Attitudes to advertising in a changing society: a study of Chinese students (Non-refereed)	Megan le Masurier, Independent magazines and print creativity in a digital age (Non-refereed)	Tom Roberts, James Murdoch's bright idea: how The Sun tried to change its readers' minds on climate change through the 'Great British Light Switch' (Non-refereed)	Jocelyn Williams, The role of opinion leaders in community internet use: connecting people, creating cohesion (Non-refereed)	*11.25 - Mary R Power, Aiding communication: reasons for non-use of hearing assistance devices (Non-refereed)

12.00pm		Peter Murphy, Writing what cannot be written about: the poietics of creation (Refereed)			*11.45 – Cassandra Loeser, Muscularity, mateship and malevolent masculinities: experiences of young men with hearing disabilities in secondary schools (Non-refereed)
					*12. 05 - Teone Reinthal, Blue colour: entrapment, initiation and freedom (Non-refereed)
12.25pm	Lunch & Prize-giving (Grant Noble Prize)

Concurrent Session 7

	A	B	C	D	E	F
Room	MDR1	MDR2	MDR3	Secretariat	Private Dining Room	L2
Stream	Digital & Social Media	Global & Environment Communication	Journalism and News Media
Chair	Clare Lloyd	Kay Weaver
1.25pm	Ann Hardy, Craig Hight & Caroline Michelle, Come on in! Reservoir Hill and audiences for interactive online drama (Non-refereed)	Christine Lim & Michael Galvin, Situating New Zealand's 'purescape' in the global imaginary (Non-refereed)	Brett Hutchins, Contesting the definition of sports news: the 2009 Australian Senate Inquiry into 'Sports News and Digital Media' (Non-refereed)
1.50pm	Serene Tng, The promise of citizen journalism for a more democratic media (Non-refereed)	Pingali Venugopal, GM crops controversy: stakeholder analysis of the case of Bt Brinjal (eggplant) in India (Non-refereed)	Perrin Brown, To shield or not to shield: A discussion of recent contempt of court cases where journalists have been charged for maintaining the confidentiality of a source (Non-refereed)
2.15pm	Julie Freeman, 'Does emailing come under the internet?' Impediments to e-government development (Non-refereed)	Antonio Castillo, Latin America media: a political battlefield (Non-refereed)	Umi Khattab, Saat Awang Damit, Syahrudin Awang Ahmad, 'Development Journalism' is dead: new(s) media and the birth of new politics in Malaysia (Refereed)
2.40pm	Hamideh Molaei Farsangi, Active netizens on Facebook: case study of Indonesians' online participation regarding 2009 presidential election (Refereed)
3.05pm	Afternoon tea & close					